

The "Service" That Counts

You hear and read a lot these days about "Service." And we have not neglected, in the conduct of our stores, that type of service which means rather the comfort and luxury of easy buying.

Our men are taught that your wish is their law, and that promptness and courtesy mean efficiency on their part.

This, as a matter of course. But there is a bigger, more important kind of service that is sometimes forgotten or overshadowed by this which is less important but more showy.

After all, the real service comes in the weeks and months after your purchase has been sent home. It is the service rendered by the goods rather than that by the men who sell them to you.

And while not neglecting the man service—store service—the real, lasting, worthwhile success of this business has been built on goods service, on the value of what you get for what you pay; on the quality that not only satisfies your good taste when you buy, but keeps on satisfying your good judgment after you have bought.

We owe much to our men, for their loyal efforts to please you; but our real debt is to the sterling character of the merchandise which keeps you pleased.

Sir Charles Brooke, Rajah, Dies at 88

Ruler of Sarawak, an Englishman, Controlled Population of 500,000

London, May 17.—The Rajah of Sarawak, Sir Charles Brooke, died today at Cirencester. He was eighty-eight years old.

Sarawak is a British protectorate on the northeast coast of Borneo, about the size of Wales and Scotland. An uncle of the deceased, Sir James Brooke, as a reward for helping the native rulers to expel the much-feared head hunters, received this huge principality and was allowed to rule over it with the rank of Rajah. Sir Charles, who succeeded him, had his own army and navy, a special flag, struck coins carrying his own image and controlled a population of 500,000, who yielded him a revenue of $750,000 a year.

The Rajah of Sarawak was a Somerset vicar's son. In 1851 he resigned from the army to help his uncle repel the attacks of Chinese pirates. He succeeded to the title in 1868. He was rewarded by Queen Victoria for his services in Borneo. One son survives his marriage with a sister of the celebrated traveler Henry de Windt.

President's Uncle Dies

Charles S. Woodrow Was Half-Brother of Wilson's Mother

Columbus, May 17.—Charles Scott Woodrow, aged sixty-seven, an uncle of President Wilson, died today at the home of his son, Thomas W. Woodrow, on Cline Road, Briggdale, a suburb of Columbus.

President Wilson's mother was Woodrow's sister. He was a native of Columbus.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman Elected Moderator

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)
Dallas, Tex., May 17.—Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, of Jamaica, N. Y., was elected moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly in the United States of America late this afternoon. He received 590 votes; Dr. Harlan G. Mendall, of New York, 121, and Dr. John T. Rendall, of Lincoln, Penn., 139.

Swedish Envoy Here

Hermann L. F. Lagercrantz, from 1906 to 1910 Swedish Minister to the United States, arrived yesterday to head a Swedish economic mission. Although he declined to make any statement, it is understood in official circles that the fear in Sweden that the United States might place an embargo on exports to that country is responsible for his coming. He made the trip at the personal solicitation of King Gustav, it is said.

U. S. Airmen to Train Students

Washington, May 17.—Army aviation officers from the First Aero Squadron have been ordered to four of the six universities co-operating in development of the army air service. They will aid civilian instructors in giving a month of preliminary training to reserve officers for the score or more new squadrons to be created.

Handsome Guardsmen

Invited to Actors' Fair

Any National Guard officer who will admit he is handsome may obtain free admission and a dancing partner at the Actors' Fair in the Grand Central Palace. Miss Gertrude Dallas, of the Army and Navy Club at the fair, yesterday sent a letter to Major Edward G. O'Neil, at the division headquarters of the National Guard, asking him to detail any "nice, handsome dancing men" he might have, "officers preferred."

She said that if they would call at the Grand Central Palace, from 4 to 6 p. m., or from 8 to 10 p. m., they would be guaranteed free admission and a good time. Major O'Neil sent a note to all the colonels in the state organization requesting them to carry the glad news to any "handsome officers" they might find.
